Dear Madam,

Apologies for the late reply.

I appreciate your understanding and patience regarding the fee waiver request. After discussing the matter with our management, we regret to inform you that a complete waiver would be challenging due to the fee structure being integral to covering manpower charges for program organization.

However, in consideration of your request, we can offer a concession. Instead of the initial Rs. 200 per head, we are willing to bring it down to Rs. 150 per head.

We understand the importance of making the program accessible and hope this concession aligns with your expectations.

Dear Mr. Gaurav,

I trust this message finds you well. I am writing to express my deepest gratitude for your invaluable assistance in organizing the recent visit to the incubation center for our students. It was truly a remarkable experience, and I am sincerely thankful for your efforts in making it happen.

The visit proved to be incredibly beneficial for our students. Witnessing the innovative atmosphere and gaining insights into the incubation processes has undoubtedly broadened their perspectives on entrepreneurship and innovation. Your guidance and support throughout the visit played a pivotal role in making it a seamless and educational experience for all.

I am particularly impressed with the level of organization and the wealth of information shared during the tour. The students were enthralled by the real-world applications and success stories presented at the incubation center. This exposure will undoubtedly leave a lasting impact on their academic and professional journeys.

Your dedication to facilitating such educational experiences is commendable, and I am grateful for the positive impact it has had on our students. I am confident that the knowledge gained during this visit will serve as a foundation for their future endeavors. Looking ahead, we are enthusiastic about planning more visits in collaboration with you.

Once again, thank you for your unwavering support and for making the incubation center visit a memorable and enriching experience for all involved. We look forward to future collaborations and are excited about the prospect of planning more educational visits together.

Warm regards,

Dr. R. Jayasri

REPORT ON INCUBATION VISIT

Venue: Crescent Innovation Incubation Council (CIIC), Crescent Engineering College, Vandalur, Chennai.

Date: 01/02/2024

No. of Students: 51

Staff Co-Ordinators: Dr. Rajshree Rajesh & Dr. B. Kalaiarasan

Organised By: Institution's Innovation Council & Entrepreneurial Development Cell

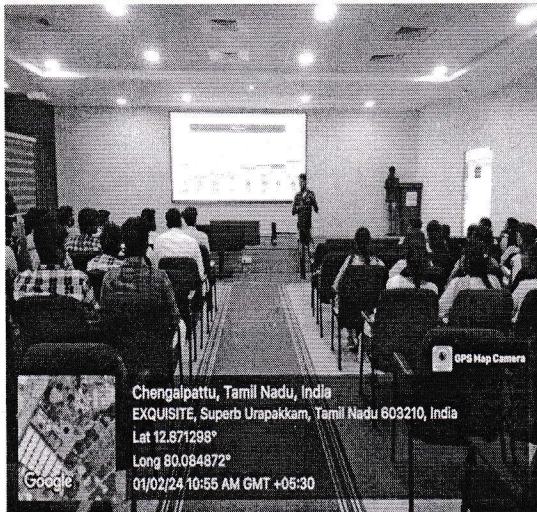

OBJECTIVE OF THE VISIT

- The purpose of the visit is to encourage entrepreneurial spirit among our students and change their perception from job seekers to job creators.
- The visit would bring an understanding on the concepts of Incubation Centre.
- To get an exposure on the facilities and services provided in the Centre.
- To have an idea about the prototypes of various business models and its operations.

CIIC acts a "One stop start up Incubator" for startups that facilitates entrepreneurial and innovative ecosystem to all the stakeholders including students, faculty members, industries, society in large. Currently they are focusing on the disruptive technologies in the domain of Life sciences, Industry 4.0 and clean mobility. There were three sessions conducted during the visit.

Session I:

Mr. Gaurav Yadev, Senior Associate, Life Sciences of CIIC team clearly oriented about their Centre's activities and motivated the students on the lines of entrepreneurship by highlighting the scope for startups, IPRs in the current scenario. They explained their completed and ongoing projects for their better understanding about the incubation Centre.

CPR Training Programme Report

DRBCCC Hindu College, Pattabiram, Chennai 72, in association with Apollo Hospitals Vanagaram, Chennai 95, organized a training programme in CPR (Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation) for the staff members on 12th September 2023 at 2.30 pm. The training programme is part of the initiative of DRBCCC Hindu College management to ensure the safety and well-being of students.

CPR is useful in emergencies like a heart attack or near-drowning cases when breathing or heartbeat stops. CPR training empowers bystanders to take immediate action, potentially saving a life before emergency medical services arrive. Having trained personnel on-site can make the work environment safer and better prepared for medical emergencies. CPR training enhances campus safety by equipping individuals with the skills to respond effectively to medical emergencies, whether they occur in classrooms, playgrounds, or other areas in the campus. The CPR training not only benefits the campus but also the surrounding neighborhood, as trained individuals may be able to assist in emergencies outside of the educational setting.

The primary objective of the training event was to create first-responder teams in DRBCCC Hindu College campus. The teachers who received training provided hands on training to the students in the college. Students were given practical training on how to perform CPR. Students are also prepared for taking action in emergencies. The CPR training will also have a positive influence on students' attitudes and behaviors.

The staff who received training imparted the CPR skills to all for all the final year students on the 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 28th, 29th and 30th of August and all the second-year students on the 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 25th, 26th, and 27th of September 2023. The mannequin for the CPR training was made available through the in-house clinic situated in the campus.

Respected Sir,

The B.com ISM department is making efforts to establish exchange programmes with SIMAT SAVEETHA SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT. Through this collaboration, students will be exposed to intensive learning that broadens their knowledge.

As part of this initiative, we seek your permission to permit 5 to 7 present MBA students who are budding entrepreneurs (doing their business at present) from SIMATS SAVEETHA SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT to visit our B.com ISM department for a 2-hour session to inculcate the need for Entrepreneurship Development among Students.

In continuation of this, we will also be sending our students to attend research methodology classes and other academic-related activities in the near future.

Regards

ICMR-INTERNSHIP

Department of Statistics - Academic Year 2023-2024

REPORT

The internship program at ICMR, NIRT, Chennai, from January 22nd to February 2nd, 2024, was attended by third-year B.Sc. Statistics students. During the internship, participants delved into a range of topics including Bio Statistics, Clinical Trials and research, hypothesis testing for both parametric and non-parametric scenarios, correlation and regression techniques, sampling techniques, and Data Management Software utilizing R. On the final day, a workshop on R-Software/Python was conducted. These sessions provided hands-on practical experience and equipped students with the necessary skills to apply various statistical methodologies and techniques effectively in their daily lives.

Objectives of the Internship:

Enhance Statistical Knowledge: Provide students with a comprehensive understanding of statistical methodologies and techniques relevant to fields such as Bio Statistics, Clinical Trials, hypothesis testing, correlation and regression, sampling techniques, and Data Management Software using R.

Practical Application: Offer hands-on practical sessions to allow students to apply theoretical concepts in real-world scenarios, thereby bridging the gap between theory and practice.

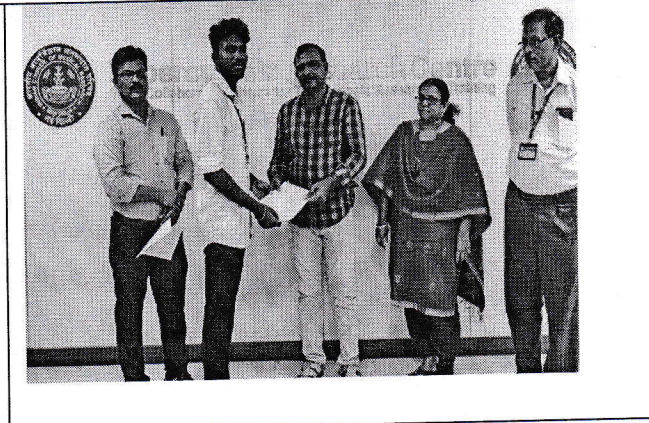

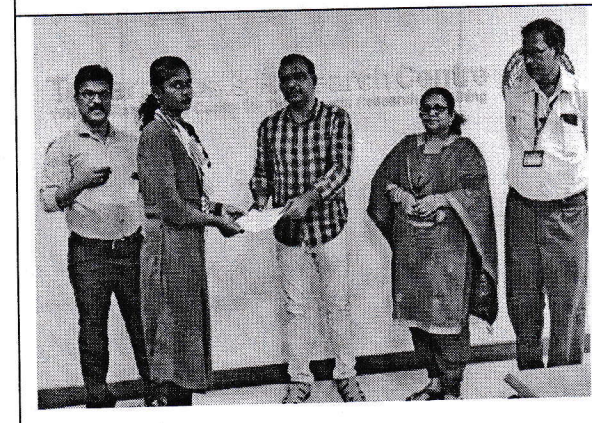

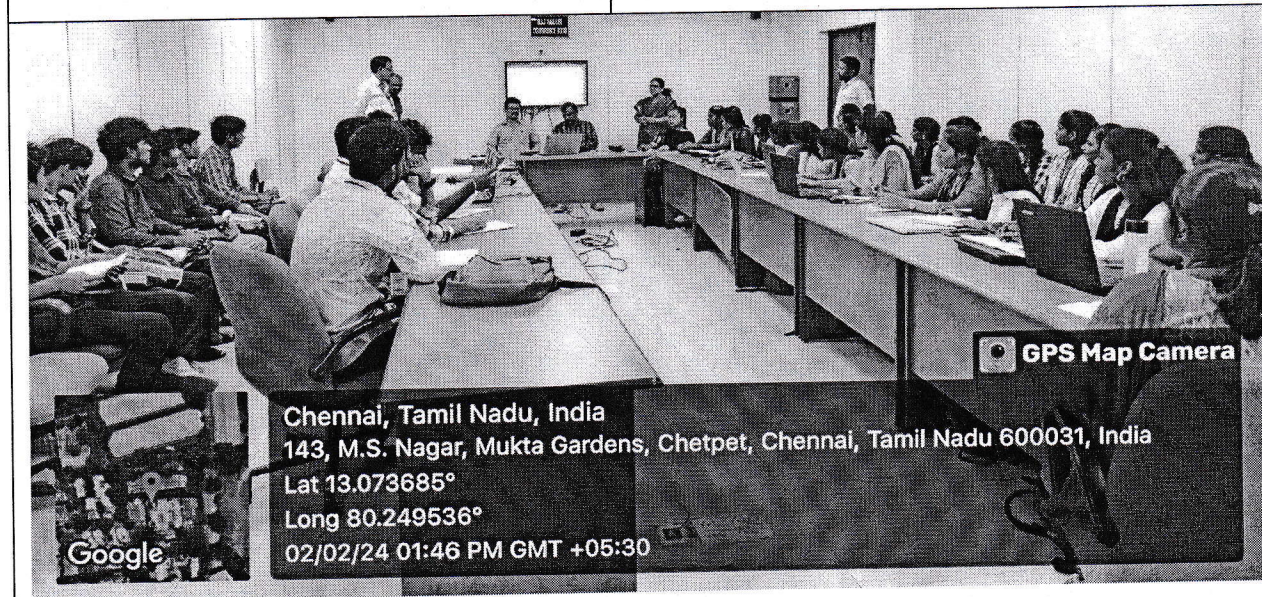

Technical Skill Development: Equip students with the necessary technical skills to utilize statistical software such as R-Software and Python for data analysis and management efficiently.

Professional Exposure: Provide students with exposure to the professional environment of a reputed research institution like ICMR, NIRT, Chennai, fostering their understanding of industry practices and standards.

Conclusion of the Internship:

The internship program at ICMR, NIRT, Chennai, successfully achieved its objectives by providing third-year B.Sc. Statistics students with a rich learning experience. Participants gained a deeper understanding of statistical concepts and methodologies through interactive sessions and practical exercises. Moreover, the exposure to Data Management Software and statistical tools like R-Software and Python equipped them with valuable technical skills essential for future endeavors in research, academia, or industry. Overall, the internship served as a platform for students to enhance their statistical knowledge, develop practical skills, and gain insights into professional research settings, thereby preparing them for future challenges in their academic and professional journey.

Report on One-Day Industrial Visit to Tamil Nadu Institute of Urban Studies (TNIUS) for III B.Sc. Statistics Students from DRBCCC Hindu College, Chennai

Date: 13th October 2023

Introduction:

On 13th October 2023, a group of 25 B.Sc. Statistics students from DRBCCC Hindu College, Chennai, participated in a one-day industrial visit to the Tamil Nadu Institute of Urban Studies (TNIUS). TNIUS is a State Level Research and Training Institute dedicated to serving Urban Local Bodies through training programs, research studies, and consultancy services. The objective of the visit was to provide students with insights into urban affairs, research methodologies, and the practical application of statistical analysis in urban development.

Overview of TNIUS:

TNIUS functions as a research and training institute for the benefit of Urban Local Bodies.

It conducts training programs, research studies, and offers consultancy services related to urban development.

The institute possesses a modern library with a diverse collection of books, journals, CDs, Government Orders (GOs), and other documents pertinent to urban affairs.

Activities during the Visit:

Welcome and Introduction: The students were warmly welcomed by the staff of TNIUS, who provided an overview of the institute's objectives and activities.

Library Tour: The students were given a tour of the institute's library, where they had the opportunity to explore its collection of resources related to urban studies. Librarians also demonstrated how to access and utilize these resources effectively.

Presentation on Urban Research and Training: A presentation was conducted by TNIUS experts, highlighting the institute's research projects, training programs, and consultancy services. Emphasis was placed on the role of statistics in urban planning and development.

Interactive Session: Students engaged in an interactive session with TNIUS professionals, discussing various aspects of urban studies, statistical analysis, and career opportunities in the field.

Demonstration of Website: TNIUS showcased its website, which serves as a platform for displaying Government Orders and important instructions related to urban development issued by the Government of Tamil Nadu and relevant departments.

Key Learnings:

- Exposure to the practical applications of statistics in urban development.
- Understanding the role of research institutes like TNIUS in addressing urban challenges.
- Familiarity with resources available in the institute's library and online platforms for urban research and policy-making.

Conclusion:

The one-day industrial visit to TNIUS provided valuable insights and practical exposure to III B.Sc. Statistics students from DRBCCC Hindu College, Chennai. The experience enhanced their understanding of urban affairs, research methodologies, and the application of statistical analysis in real-world scenarios.

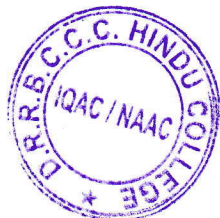

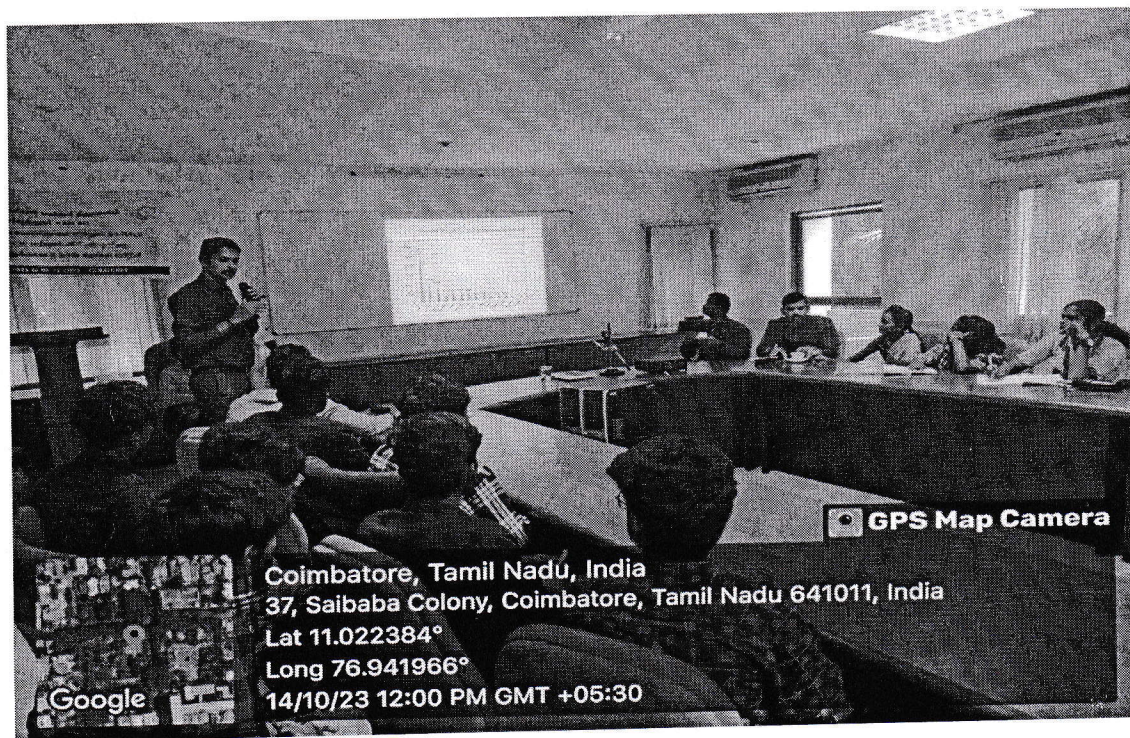

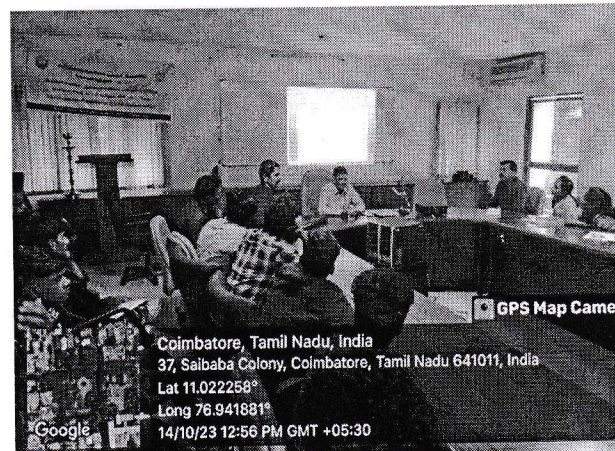

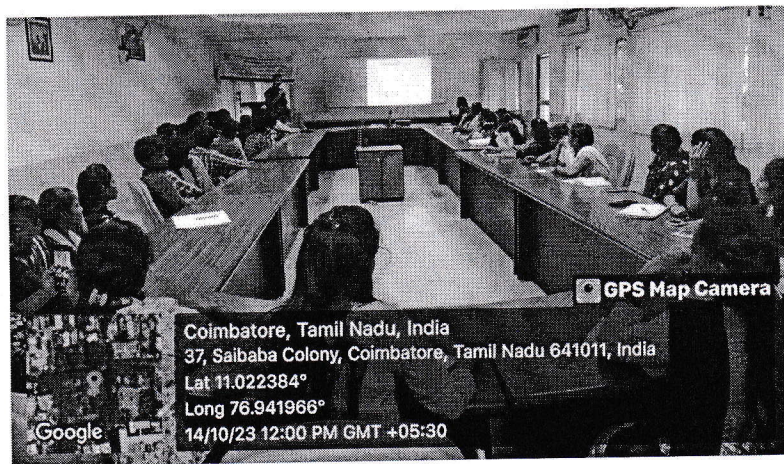

Recommendations:

Encourage more industrial visits and interactions with research institutes to broaden students' perspectives and enhance their practical skills.

Foster collaborations between academic institutions and organizations like TNIUS to facilitate experiential learning opportunities for students.

This report summarizes the activities, learnings, and recommendations derived from the one-day industrial visit to TNIUS by III B.Sc. Statistics students from DRBCCC Hindu College, Chennai.
