May Guru Nanak Devji shower his blessings upon all students from various schools and colleges for their active participation and in voicing their views about the supreme sacrifice of Char Sahibzaade and their relevance today.

Joginder Singh Bhasin,
President of Guru Nanak Educational Society

The Management, since inception, continues to focus on several avenues to provide extensive priorities to first generation graduates and imparting right skill sets. The main focus of GNES is to give consultancy and to partner with corporates, educational institutions, NGOs, communities and individuals, engage and empower them with requisite tools for a sustainable and inclusive growth thereby developing the society.

There are many lessons to be learned from the martyrdom of the four sons of Sri Guru Gobind Singhji, and they are priceless for the entirety of humanity. Even a formidable enemy cannot touch your soul but can destroy only your physical self. The tools of these martyrs continue to pervade humanity through these life's lessons for all eternity.

Dr. Marlene Morais

The overall objective of the institution is to mould the students as responsible citizens of tomorrow and enable them to take up multifarious tasks for all-round development.

GUIDING THE YOUTH TO TAKE ON GLOBAL CHALLENGES

This year's Guru Nanak College's Gurushiksha was a spectacle of talent, as the college hosted state-level inter-school and inter-collegiate competitions in oratory, poster-making, and theatre plays

Guru Nanak College, Velachery in association with the Times of India, recently concluded its 8th annual extravaganza, Gurushiksha. Renowned for decades of philanthropy and commitment to holistic student development, the event showcased the institution's dedication to academic excellence and all-encompassing growth.

This year's Gurushiksha was a spectacle of talent, as the college hosted state-level inter-school and inter-collegiate competitions in oratory, poster-making, and theatre plays. The multilingual event, featuring Tamil, Hindi, and English categories, drew participants not only from the state but also from across India, setting a diverse flair to the competitions.

The competition's theme revolved around Char Sahibzaade's relevance in the 21st century, exploring spirituality and the sacrifices made for the country. Char Sahibzaade refers to the four sons of Guru Gobind Singh, the 10th Sikh Guru, who sacrificed their lives as martyrs, leaving an indelible mark on Sikh history.

Dr T K Arvul Kothai, the principal of Guru Nanak College, expressed astonishment at the students' unprecedented response. The participants deeply delved into the theme, citing voluminous data, quotes, and historical references. Dr Kothai highlighted that the 8th edition had surpassed previous records, showcasing the students' curiosity and dedication to learning.

Established in 1971 with a mission of service for the benefit of all, Guru Nanak College has grown exponentially thanks to strong leadership and effective management. Dr Swati Pallwal, the Dean of Academics, emphasised the institution's goal of developing responsible citizens for tomorrow's society. The college encourages students to engage in multifaceted activities, fostering all-round development and a commitment to contribute to society.

Beyond academics, Guru Nanak College has implemented various welfare measures. A free cafeteria catering to teaching and non-teaching staff reflects their commitment to supporting working parents. The institution also sponsors daily free meals for 600 people through the langar near the Gurdwara.

Guru Nanak educational institutions actively support student participation in the NCC. With 260 students enrolled, the college provides breakfast during early morning sports training sessions, benefiting students who travel from distant locations to attend.

The rendezvous function of the 8th edition of Gurushiksha, in which the Times of India was the media partner, highlighted the need for continued relevance of Char Sahibzade in the 21st century, was held at the Guru Nanak College auditorium amidst oratorical, poster and theatrical competitions. The event's objective was to encourage students from various schools and colleges in the city and enable them to display their inherent talents.

Dr Kothai welcomed the chief guest Sandeep Nair Rathore, IPS, DGP and Commissioner of Police, Greater Chennai, and other dignitaries. Dr L R S Kalamithi, Dean, School of Languages, termed the annual event historical as it has been held since 2012 except during COVID-19 interruption. She said that the martyrdom of four Sahibzadas has significance in Sikh history.

"An estimated 500 registrants from 28 schools and 26 colleges participated in the competitions. The contestants included school students from classes I to VIII and IX to XII besides graduates, postgraduates and research scholars. Initially the total cash prize was fixed at Rs 10 lakh. However, later, it was enhanced to Rs 13.4 lakh. Besides the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd prizes, consolation prizes for all the participants who reached the finals were announced. The participation assumes greater significance because it occurred amidst the impending examinations. It has rejuvenated the fearless spirit of Chaar Sahibzade," she highlighted. Welcoming the gathering, Dr Kothai appreciated her meritorious services towards

Shri Sandeep Kapur Rathore, founder and managing trustee, Arunya Foundation, for her yeoman service in feeding people at the cancer hospitals and other areas. Dr Kothai appreciated her meritorious services towards society and said he felt proud to participate in the event.

He appreciated the laudable efforts made by Guru Nanak's educational institutions for over 15 years in the field of education, besides philanthropic activities for society. He added, "When the college was established in Velachery, there were few college nearby. After a gradual elevation from a mere 400 to the present level of 7,000 students, they have come a long way with zeal and a mission. The recent introduction of sports facilities, especially the shooting range, was also used for the Khelo India Youth Games 2024."

He added, "I would like to place on record my sincere appreciation and thanks to the management of Guru Nanak institutions for contributing mainly to the success of Chennai and Tamil Nadu." According to Rathore, Sikhs revere the four sons of Guru Gobind Singh as symbols of courage, faith and sacrifice.

"They were born in the 10th Guru Gobind Singh. If you look back 400-500 years, what was the kind of life in those parts of Punjab, how did they evolve, and what were the difficulties they faced during that time? They were talking about their sense of responsibility at a very young age. It is not the individuals, but the message that stayed for many years. The courage and many values, made them fearless as they came from the path of righteousness. Anybody can follow it," said Rathore.

In his message to the youngsters, Rathore said that today's students will witness a progressive India in the coming years. "If one digs into online data, one can see how India will become the third largest economy by 2030. If one goes even further, he will be pleased to know that India is poised to become the world's second-largest economy by 2075. It is all for the young people to enjoy the fruits laid behind by their country's founding fathers, including the institutions."

He called up on the students to commit themselves to certain ideals and principles for which Guru Nanak College implements several programmes every year. The college strives to inculcate the doctrine of Sant Sipahi and follow them diligently. "These principles should be followed when you enter the first job. When you enter the second job, you will find the right path to [illegible]

Thanking Guru Nanak College management Rathore assured that GCE and Tamil Nadu Police are always there whenever the institution needs them. "During the last floods, Guru Nanak College came forward quickly when we reached their help. They supplied food, blankets, items and blankets to distressed people. They have power and go to us. When the time comes, we will undoubtedly reciprocate," said Rathore.

In a message, Rajinder Singh Bhatia, President of Guru Nanak Educational Society, congratulated the organising team of Gurushiksha 2024. "May Guru Nanak Devji shower his blessings upon all students from various schools and colleges for their active participation and in wishing their wishes about the supreme sacrifice of Char Sahibzaade and their relevance today," said Bhatia.

Madras Day

The founding day of Madras is considered to be August 22, 1639.

It was on that day, in that year, a sliver of land, where Fort. St. George stands today and was transacted by the East India Company. The deal was struck by Francis Day, his 'dubash' Beri Thimmappa, and their superior, Andrew Cogan, with the local Nayak Rulers. It is believed that this deal was made on August 22, 1639. Out of the fort, grew settlements. Then the villages around it were brought together and then, the old and new towns linked up. And we had the city.

Today, Chennai stands tall for a variety of reasons. Education, healthcare, IT, history, tourism, auto industries, Movies, etc., and yes, it also has its warts. Madras Day celebrates the city.

Madras Day was an idea that three people put together – The city's famed historian, S. Muthiah, journalist Sashi Nair, and publisher Vincent D' Souza. Later, they were joined by three others – Senior Journalist and editor Sushila Ravindranath, Journalist and website entrepreneur and writer-historian V. Sriram.

Madras Day focuses on the city, its history, its past, and its present and the core team motivates communities, groups, companies, and campuses in the city to host events that celebrate the city.

Heritage walks, School exchange programmes, talks and contests, poetry and music and quiz, food fests and rallies, photo exhibitions, bike tours, and more are how the city is celebrated.

The Annual Madras Week Celebrations - Aug 2023

The Department of Historical Studies of DRBCCC Hindu College, conducted its Annual Madras Week Celebrations for two days. The theme of this year's celebration was Chimes and Chennai.

Jatayupara is a hillock in Chadayamangalam, Kollam 3 kilometers away from the college that features a stunningly colossal statue of Jatayu. Popular belief has it that the vulture-king mentioned in the epic Ramayana fell on this rocky hill when Ravana sliced off its wing during an aerial combat as Jatayu tried to prevent the abduction of Sita. Considered the world's largest bird sculpture, it has a rock theme park and an adventure Centre for sports enthusiasts. The 60 ft. tall, 150 ft. broad and 200 ft. long figure of the fallen bird stands as a symbol of valour and sacrifice. The Jatayu Earth's Center offers a bird's eye view from 1000 ft. above sea level.

Kollam is the nerve-centre of the country's cashew trading and processing industry is 30 kilometers away from the college. The magnificent Arabian Sea that stretches unendingly to the horizon makes Kollam with glorious stretch of golden sand, azure waters and Mahatma Gandhi beach is the quintessential beach destination for travelers. An array of beach activities, light house and Kollam port is frequented by locals and foreigners alike.

Thenmala is another attraction for those who love to explore nature. The lush green terrain of Thenmala, dotted with forests was selected by the World Tourism Organisation as one of the best eco-friendly tourism projects.Thus participation in the seminar will give you a wonderful opportunity for visiting these places of interest. This would be available on a payment basis during post seminar hours.
